

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Sinclair VP Mark Hynmen can call it "news" all he wants - it doesn't make it so.

Along with their decision to block the airing of the Nightline episode with the roll call of fallen soldiers in Iraq, Sinclair Broadcasting executives are using the public airwaves to push their political agenda. I urge you to put a halt to this affront to our democracy.

thank you
